Dear Parent(s),

"He seldom reflects on the days of his life, because God keeps him occupied with gladness of heart," writes King Solomon about the person truly blessed by God (Ecc. 5:20). Summer has passed, and the new year is upon us. And so it is that reflecting on the joys of summer is difficult because of our present joys meeting regularly together once again at Riptide and Who U. This is not even to mention the activities and events that we have yet in store for this year.

King Solomon (along with present day insurance companies) has a word or two to say about governance as well. His end goal, and ours as well, is always the safety and protection of God's child(ren). Thus, we'd ask that you take a moment to fill out the enclosed form and return it to the church at your earliest convenience. May you be kept occupied with gladness of heart.

Your servant,
